

BANGOR WHIG.

JOHN S. SAWYARD, Editor.

THURSDAY, SEPT. 30, 1841.

ANOTHER BANK ROBBERY. The Herkimer County Bank at Little Falls N. Y., was entered on the night of the 25th inst. and $72,000 were taken from its vaults, of which $50,000 were in notes of the Bank. It appears that on Saturday last, after three o'clock, when the Bank hours were over, one of the clerks, named Brown, went to the cashier and obtained the keys, under pretence of discounting a note for some customer who was in haste to leave. He must have left the doors open and returned during the night, and obtained the money and started in the night train. Three individuals were concerned in the robbery, two were bank clerks the other was a printer. They were traced to Albany, where they breakfasted at the City Hotel on Sunday; after which they hired carriages, as they said, for West Stockbridge. As they are hotly pursued, but little doubt is entertained of their being caught.

The N. Y. Commercial thus describes two of the robbers:

—Brown the robber, is short of stature and of a sandy complexion. Francis is tall, very erect, black hair, large black whiskers, and has a fashionable hat, the brim of which curls up close at the sides. He is from Baltimore, and it is believed that the guilty clerk has been seduced from his integrity by his villainous arts.

BATTLE OF BUNKER HILL.

This splendid Diorama that has afforded so much pleasure to our citizens, will be continued in this city only until next Saturday afternoon. Those who have not witnessed the exhibition should improve the three days that are to be given.

OUR MILITIA.

Mr. Editor. The smoke of the great political battle just fought, having cleared away, presenting unobscured the two contending armies, the victorious and the vanquished, both reposing in amazement at the result. I take it for granted that you will be happy to hear from your old friend again upon the subject of the militia, a subject of vast importance, and yet so neglected by the public press of our country.

All acknowledge that a citizen soldiery is our safeguard, our bulwark, and yet all are prone to neglect and utterly forget it. A grand reform has been begun in this Regiment, during the past season, and it is really to be hoped it will progress that it will not stop until a thorough reorganization is effected. In this glorious work every officer and every soldier has a part to act. It is the elevation of the militia we desire. How is it to be accomplished? by commencing at the ground tiers, the fundamental principles. Officers must be gentlemen, intelligent, educated at least sufficient to enable them to acquire them selves respectfully in a military point of view in addition to their civil education. Soldiers must be made sensible that instead of being subjects of ridicule, they are looked upon with approbation, and that they will receive the honor and respect of the community to say the least corresponding with the manner in which they do their duty. In short, let every officer in this Regiment, determine there shall be a total reorganization, and by study and self drill, do his part of the work. Let them feel there is a certain elevation of character, appertaining to the intelligent officer which cannot belong to an ignorant one.

A military education serves in an eminent degree to polish the citizens as well as the soldier. Our militia officers should not only learn to be tacticians, but should familiarize themselves with military reading generally. And let me again recommend to them the "New York Military Magazine," as being everything they need. It comes at so low a price, and is published weekly, that it seems to me every officer should possess it. We have not heretofore been able to get correct military reading and now that we can get it so easy, let us not be without it.

After having been so long alone in the field, I find I am having co-workers to assist me, at which I rejoice. A writer in Friday's Whig over the signature of "X Corporal" gave quite a graphic account of the review on the 21st inst. It was evidently, written in generous, good feeling, but I think he hurried over the latter part of his subject too hastily. He probably was not aware that the field officers of this regiment were ununiformed agreeable to the army and truly looked elegant, and that another year will see the platoon officers, all of them, in the same beautiful uniform, notwithstanding the same negro livery as prescribed for the officers of the militia. There will be, I am sure, one bright, glorious spot in the militia of Maine, and that spot will be the limits of this regiment.

I see with pleasure, that I have another coadjutor in the Whig of the 27th inst. who writes very sensibly, though altogether too brief. Hoping that these co-workers in this glorious cause, the reformation of our militia being fresh in the earnestness will work faithfully, I propose retiring from the field for awhile, and give them full scope. It is our great misfortune as I have before said, that not an iota of military reading has been disseminated among the militia. I hope your present co-workers will assist you, Mr. Editor, in correcting this evil. Allow me to suggest to you the propriety of selecting an article occasionally from some military work. Although the military compose such a large portion of our citizens, yet they are wholly neglected by our newspaper press.

It is doubtful whether the trial of McLeod will come on this week. It is expected to last some days, and it is probable that the Court will dispose of most of the other cases before it takes up that of McLeod. A number of depositions taken under the commission issued by the Supreme Court, have reached Utica, and more are expected.

A SUGGESTION LADIES' FAIR.

Mr. Editor. I notice upon the tables, there are for sale cards, entitling the purchaser by the payment of one dollar, to one year's subscription to the Maine Temperance Gazette, or The Washingtonian.

The friends of Temperance, I trust, will embrace the present opportunity to obtain for themselves, or for their friends, one or both of these papers. In this way we may obtain a record of the progress of the cause, and we are sure the cause cannot be aided more efficiently, than by circulation of temperance publications, and by subscribing on this occasion, the proceeds of the Fair will be considerably increased. Some we hope will purchase quite a package of tickets, and give directions to forward the paper to those who cannot afford to pay for it.

There is also for sale beautiful Temperance diplomas, designed by Judge Redington, entitling a lady or gentleman, on adding their names to the Constitution of the Maine Temperance Union (which is at hand) to a copy of the same, (the name of the person being added) on the payment of fifty cents. A small sum considering the beauty of the design. There are three views upon the Diploma, to which we would invite attention.

Mr. Williams, of this city, a true Washingtonian, and a good workman, will frame them neatly, at from 50 cents and upwards according to the size of the mounting. Specimens of the frames are upon the table.

DIPLOMA.

TEMPERANCE FAIR.

Mr. Editor. The Ladies' Temperance Fair now being held at the City Hall should be remembered and well attended by all the friends of the noble cause, which this effort of the fair of our city is intended to advance.

The excellent taste displayed in the decoration of the Hall, the beauty and excellence of the articles exposed for sale together with the consideration of the object which this Fair is to promote, should be a sufficient inducement for all to give their attendance, and thus lend their aid in its advancement. To the gentleman I would say, go by all means and you will be more than repaid for an hour thus spent by beholding the beauty and fashion of the city there assembled and listening to the sweet tones of the Piano, furnished by the delicate hand of some of our beautiful girls. Therefore all who are friends of this sacred cause, go to the City Hall, and thus give your support to the Ladies, who with their characteristic kindness and sympathy for the suffering, have made this effort for their relief.

A FRIEND TO THE CAUSE.

TOMATO CATSUP.

Mr. Editor. On looking over a few volumes of the N. E. Farmer for a recipe to make Tomato Catsup, I find the following: Vol. 14, No. 13. Cut the Tomatoes up finely and add every layer sprinkle a layer of salt, let them stand a few hours before you boil them, which is very well. Then strain them through a colander, add horse radish, mustard seed, ginger, pepper, cloves, and nice, and cover the vessel close and let the whole stand a day or two, when it must be boiled and sealed for use. Some persons add bruised onions or garlics to the other seasoning.

ANOTHER.

The Tomato, when fully ripe, should be bruised and boiled very slowly for half an hour, then strained through a cloth, and the liquid boiled for another half an hour after adding salt and other spices, but without any admixture of water. The scum should be carefully removed so as to render the liquid as pure as possible. It should be bottled and kept in a cool place.

TOMATO PIES.

Equal to the English Gooseberry Pies.

The Tomatoes are skinned and sliced, and after being mixed with sugar are prepared in the same manner as other pies.

The tomato is likely to become one of the most useful of plants. G. L. HAMPTON, 1-41.

If we give below an interesting anecdote which we find in the life of Matthew Boulton.

"As an illustration of the nicety and skill displayed in some of the articles made by Boulton, the following anecdote is related. He visited France on a certain occasion, for the purpose of attending a Mechanics Fair that was to take place at which he brought to be allowed to exhibit a needle of his own making at the same time submitting it to examiners of works, intended for this public display, who one and all pronounced it to be, though well shaped and finely polished, but a common needle, and not worthy of appearing among the splendid and ingenious improvements and inventions that usually graced the Fair. 'Gentlemen,' observed Mr. Boulton, 'My needle is well worthy of appearance among your promised novelties, only allow it to be exhibited with them now, and I will afterwards show you the reason why.'

An unwilling assent to this request was finally obtained, but when the fair closed, and the prizes were to be awarded, the arbiters truly unphankily asked, 'where was Mr. Boulton's needle?' and what were the striking merits which every one failed to discover? Thereupon Mr. Boulton again presented it for their inspection, with a magnifying glass begging them to state whether they observed roughness or weakness on its surface. The umpires returned it, saying, 'Far from it, its sole merits seems to be its perfectness.' 'Brilliant then,' said this ingenious man, 'its indiscoverable merit, and whilst I prove to you that I have made no made no vain boast of its claims to your attention, you will learn, perhaps, not to judge so readily again by mere exterior. He then unscrewed the needle, when another appeared, an exquisite workmanship, and to the astonishment of the Frenchmen, about half a dozen beautiful needles were thus turned out, neatly and curiously packed within each other, a miracle of art that seems to rival all we ever read of a truly wonderful in power. Mr. Boulton triumphed in his turn, and carried off the prize, which his delicate workmanship so richly deserved.

HORRIBLE MURDER IN NEW YORK.

DISCOVERY AND ARREST OF THE MURDERER.

On Friday week, says the Journal of Commerce, Mr. Samuel Adams, a printer of the firm of Schatchard & Adams, of No. 59 Gold street, suddenly disappeared. He was a man of steady habits and was advertised.

A Mr. Colt, author of an able work on book-keeping, lived a room on the second floor of the granite building corner of Chambers street and Broadway. On Friday evening a noise was heard in Colt's room, and some persons passing by, those in an adjoining room, and from the silence that ensued suspicions were excited that all was not right.

"On the following morning, a large box was observed by many of the inmates of the granite building, standing in the entry. Some in the upper part of the building found that it was an undecomposed body of a man, the length to contain two full sized men. One thing however, that it was directed to St. Louis via New Orleans, they saw it was going from the building, not that night to me 15th. The box was removed between half past 8 and 10 A. M., on Saturday the 15th.

The advertisement of Mr. Adams was seen by the persons who heard the noise in Colt's room, and on inquiring of him, he was informed that Colt was married to Mr. A. for printing, about $200. He immediately communicated his suspicions to the Mayor, and Colt's room was searched. A glass was found shattered, a hatchet the handle of which was newly scraped with broken glass. The end of the handle of the axe was covered with ink, the wall was also spotted with ink, to conceal or obliterate the marks of blood.

Colt on being examined, stated that he made a box out of a large trunk to hold his stationery, but the box not answering he threw the wood out of the window. He said to account for a hatchet he had borrowed.

The coroner was found and taken to the fore the Mayor, where he stated that Mr. Colt had employed and paid him to carry a box from his room, corner of Broadway and Chambers street, to the ship Kalamazoo lying at the foot of Maiden lane on the morning of the 13th inst., and that he had delivered it there accordingly.

In consequence of this Mr. Mayor ordered officers A. M. C. Smith and Waldron, on board the vessel, and the hatchet, which had been closed to be opened, the box was found and brought on deck. On opening it, the body of Mr. Adams with only his shirt on, was found therein, packed round tightly with salt, and an awning wrapped round the whole, and then the box nailed up. It was conveyed to the dead house in the Park, and the coroner held an inquest, the verdict of which, we understand, was that Mr. Adams was with it murdered by Colt.

It is said that Colt will be accused that this diabolical murder was actually planned beforehand, that the box was procured to be made for the purpose and the hatchet purchased with which to deal the death-blow. This suspicion is in a measure confirmed by the fact that the murderer robbed the dead body of the victim. It was known that beside his valuable watch Mr. Adams had considerable money in his possession at the time of his disappearance, and it is presumed, from Colt's acquaintance and constant dealing with him, he was aware of this circumstance.

Colt's connections are highly respectable. He is rather plain looking, and appears to be 35 years of age. The murder of Mr. Adams has been fixed upon him pretty closely. If he can show that he has been wronged or can produce circumstances it is well in it, let him not expect any mercy from an indignant and outraged community.

There is a very singular circumstance in connection with this melancholy event, which may be relied on as literally true. From the first moment of her husband's disappearance, Mrs. Adams was persuaded that he had been murdered. For two or three days she would give no reason for this belief.

At last she communicated to her friends that she had a frightful dream early in the week of the disappearance. She thought she saw the bleeding corpse of her husband, dismembered and packed in a box, and so confident was she that it existed that she had been deceived.

COTTAGE PIETY.

BY JEREMY SHURT, Esq.

"Early had this learned Reverence the dawn that displays The mystery, the life which cannot die." Wordsworth.

There is no poetry like that in our cottages—Go through the land from one end to the other, enter if you will, at every door, you will seek out the dying in the chilly hall, and lowly dwelling, and you will find that the humblest of the humblest, are often the most acceptable in the eyes of their Maker, and that in the words of Holy Writ, 'many a wise, and many a noble, are called; but God hath chosen the weak things of this world to confound the mighty.' And there is a philosophy in this. The rich have wherewithal to enjoy themselves in this life, and what care they for the one to come, but the poor find no peace from toil on earth, and gladly had the meanness which bids them to a better and a brighter world, where the weary are at rest. Then, too, the Sabbath of the cottager! They who live in cities, or dwell in stately palaces in the country, have no idea of the soothing calm of this day, to the poor man. All through the weary week, in summer or in winter, amid cold and rain and heat, he is compelled to toil for the scanty pittance which barely keeps his wife and little ones alive, and when the Sabbath morning comes, and he sees all so tidy about him, while the sun smiles pleasantly through the casement and there is an eloquent stillness on all without, a feeling of 'freedom' and of untold peace, comes stealing over his soul such as those who have never shared his toils cannot imagine. If he has a heart it is melted into gratitude. If he is a gently man, and does not these very things purely his heart sensibly, he will exclaim, 'his little ones around him, and together they will lift up their thank-givings for the blessings of another week. Oh how often in some old country house far, far away from the crumens and cares of the town, have we listened to the morning hymn sweetly rising on the air, and seeming to go up to heaven all the sweeter for the songs of birds and the murmur of the stream, with which it mingled. 'Yes,' we love

The sound of hymns On some bright Sabbath morning on the way Home all will be glad, and where hard by A ripe green grass, the sun, and sunnook All look as if they knew the day, the hour, And felt with man the need of joy and thanks.

Yonder is a cottage down by the glen. If you will come and stand with us beside the casement you can just see the white walls of that humble home, smiling through the embowering foliage. There live a daughter and her parents, and if you would care pity, go into that cottage. Shall I tell you how their Sunday is spent? It will be a lesson to us all.

When breakfast is over the little family, atired in their best, set forth to church, the daughter walking betwixt her aged parents, and kindly supporting their steps, while every thing around them soothes their heart for the duties of the day. It is a September morning, and all Nature is filled with harmony. Not a leaf that rustles on the air, nor a brook that bubbles by, nor a bird that whistles in the wood, nor the voice of a child singing from the overflowing gladness of its heart, but is sweeter to their ear, and more soothing to their soul, than the music of a Garcia. And when they reach the old church how every one will make room for them! And so, after service, will they return home.

And in the afternoon they will gather round the little table, beneath the open casement through which flows gently the hum of bees and the fragrance of flowers, and there they will sit listening to the word of God, as their daughter reads aloud. There is such a quiet, soft dreamy quietude, that it soothes them fitfully to a happy calm. 'This is a Sabbath day, this is a Sabbath day, the call is purring in her lowest tone, the bird from its cage, looks gently down; the sunbeams fall hushed on the clear bright floor, and the cool leaves by the window, that move and then fall to the ground, strike with a faint low sound in the earth, like the foot fall of a fairy at moonlight.

Every word that sacred volume the listeners drink eagerly, for they are, faithful, the writers of life. 'Aye,' they drink it in the more eagerly because read by her, whose voice to them is softer than that of a rhapsodist.

Add such a Cottage Piety. The proud may sneer at it, the rich may regard it as a fiction, the dwellers in town may look on it as an enthusiasts' picture, but the great God who inhabits us all in who notes every deed, beholds this scene, and every Sabbath of the year

Graham's Magazine.

MECHANIC'S SONG.

All jovial Mechanics! come join in my song, And let the brisk chorus go merrily along; That some may be poor, and some rich to may be, We all are contented, and happy, and free.

Ye Tailors, of ancient and noble renown, Who clothe all the people in country and town, Room have that Akin, you're in the line of, Inough, the Lord of the world, was a tailor by trade.

Ye Masons! who work in stone, mortar and brick, And lay the four corners of a building on a rock, Though you may be poor, and your wages be low, Both Egypt and China your wonders proclaim.

Ye Smiths! who forge tools for all trades here below, You have nothing to fear while you can make a blow. All things you may conquer so happy your lot, If you're careful to strike while your iron is hot.

Ye Steamers! nobly from ages long past, Have led us to new rights with a vessel to the last. And all others, all merry, not only stay here, But work night and day for the good of our sort.

Ye Cabinet Makers! who work in wood, And make a new look for the leather with a good, And to the carpenter's work, you're in the line of, Stick to your job, and you'll find a good thing to do.

Ye Hatters! who, with hands not very fair, Fix on a bill for a black or a hair, Though you may be poor, and your wages be low, You've the Lord of the world, and the suns of all men.

Ye Coach Makers! must not be too be controlled, But ship off your coaches and with us home gold, The roll of your coach in the Copernicus reel, And let the world to turn round like a wheel.

Ye Carvers, and Turners, and Hatters attend, And take the advice of 'Po'r Richard, your friend, Stick close to your looms, all your wheels, and your craft, And you never need fear of the times being hard.

Ye Printers! who give us our learning and news, And immortally print, for Turkey, China, and Java, Let your work be so perfect as the stars in the sky, The freedom of press, and a balance in sheets.

Ye Coopers! who rattle with dexter and art, And let the cask be up and up, and up and up, You may say it is a hard day, but you're in the line of, You may say it is a hard day, but you're in the line of.

Ye Ship Builders, Rogers, and makers of sails, And the frame of a ship, and the sails, And you may say it is a hard day, but you're in the line of, And you may say it is a hard day, but you're in the line of.

Ye Fish Traders! turn out with a stool in the hand, To catch the fish, and keep the peace through the land, Rich, poor, and all, and you're in the line of, And let the fish be so good, and you're in the line of.

WM BROWN'S COMPOUND BONE-SET CANDY. for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Difficulty of Breathing, Sore Throat, and all pulmonary complaints. It is also in extensive use for Clearing the Voice of Vocalists and Public Speakers. Its efficacy is fully established for removing the above complaints. As there are imitations in the market, that are frequently sold for Genuine, in order to avoid them, the proprietor of this valuable Cough remedy, is to the great expense of having it stamped "Wm. Brown, Boston." Also the Directions are signed. For genuine observe the stamp, and receive no other. Price 19 cts for 4 oz. The great increase of sales this season is sufficient to satisfy the whole community of its superiority. As an evidence read Certificate.

I hereby certify that in the month of October, 1839, I manufactured from a medicated decoction furnished by Wm. Brown, Druggist, 481 Washington Street, Boston, 524 lbs of his Compound Bone-set Candy. Same month this year, 1840, I manufactured from him 2283 lbs, showing an increase to satisfy all that the article is truly all the go. Six years since in the same month I made but 50 lbs.
It is now ten years to my knowledge that this Candy has been made by Mr Brown.

CONSUMPTION

DR. ALLEN'S BALSAM of Hoarhound, Liverwort, and Pleurisy Root, for Consumption and Liver Complaint, Colds, Coughs, Spitting of Blood, Catarrh, Asthma, Difficulty of Breathing, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Oppression and Soreness of the Chest, Pleurisy, Hectic Fever, Night Sweats, Difficult and Profuse Expectoration, and all affections of the Chest, Lungs and Liver.

The Hoarhound, Liverwort, and Pleurisy Root have for centuries been celebrated in the cure of diseases of the Lungs and Liver.
Dr. B. D. Allen, after a series of experiments, has been able to extract from these medicinal herbs a balsam, which exerts a most wonderful effect in curing Consumption and Liver Complaint, and all other diseases of the Lungs and Chest. So great is the reputation of Dr. Allen's Balsam that it is now used in the New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore Hospitals, and in the private practice of our most eminent medical men.
For children labouring under inflammation of the Lungs, Colds, Coughs, Croup, Quinsy, and Sore Throat this Balsam is of great importance. The number of deaths among children from these diseases is truly alarming. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves much trouble anxiety, and expense, let them procure Dr. B. D.
Allen's Balsam; and whenever a child has taken cold, has any fever, cough, or hoarseness, give a teaspoonful of this medicine, and repeat it if necessary; even one teaspoonful will often effect an entire cure. During the winter of 1839, rising of one thousand families employed this remedy in the city of New York. The consequence was, that the number of deaths among children was reduced to less than one half the usual number, as may be seen by the city inspector's report of deaths.

In order to give the reader some idea of the efficacy of this Balsam, and how extensively it is used,
we here introduce the monthly report of the cures it performed in the month of May, 1839, as furnished us by the agent, and published in the New York Sun.

"Monthly Report of the cures performed by Dr.
B. D. Allen's Balsam of Hoarhound, Liverwort and Pleurisy Root during the month of May. It has cured and completed the cure of Consumption in	1121 cases.

Liver complaint	102 "
Dyspepsia	196 "
Asthma	91 "
Palpitation of the Heart	87 "
Raising Blood	66 "
Total	1692

"The number of Colds and Coughs cured by this medicine are too numerous to report."

"CAUTION. Purchase none unless it has a Certificate of Copywright on wrapper and label, and the written signature of B. D. ALLEN, M. D.

The following certificates show the high estimation in which Dr. Allen's Balsam is held.

Resolved: That from a knowledge of the composition of Dr. Allen's Balsam of Hoarhound, Liverwort and Pleurisy Root, and the most astonishing effects we have seen in have upon our patients, it is our decided and unanimous opinion that it will cure Consumption and Liver complaint and we do strongly recommend it to the faculty and the public generally.

JOHN SMITH, M. D. President.
DAVID P. HALE, M. D. Sec'y.
From J. L. Rogers, M. D. N. Y. City.
Dr. B. D. ALLEN, Dear Sir. For a year past I have been in the habit of prescribing your Balsam of Hoarhound, Liverwort and Pleurisy Root to my patients in private practice. I have assured it in the Hospital. I find it a remedy of great efficacy in affections of the Lungs and Liver. In cases of Consumption, Cough, Asthma, and Bronchitis, I have found it a very efficacious, and I believe it is prescribed very generally by the profession.

I have the honor to be, yours, &c.
J. L. ROGERS, M. D.

To B. D. Allen, M. D.
From Rev. Dr. Scott, of New York.
Dr. B. D. ALLEN, Dear Sir. I am most happy to inform you that your Balsam of Hoarhound, Liverwort and Pleurisy Root, has cured me of the Liver complaint; a disease under which I had labored upwards of six years. I have recommended it to several of my friends who are afflicted with the same malady, and in every instance has it been successful. Hoping that God may spare your life for usefulness. I am respectfully yours.

YANKEE BAKER.

ALBERT NOYES & CO. are now manufacturing the celebrated YANKEE BAKER, which for convenience and economy in fuel, is unrivalled by any other article. One cent's worth of Charcoal is sufficient to keep it in operation one day. As an article for summer use, it will be found indispensable, as the heat is all kept within the Baker, and the baking is done by reflection from the cylinder, thereby enabling one to cook without the addition of a great fire either in a stove or fire place. 4md May 24.

Wright's Indian Vegetable Pills, or Indian Purgative.

Of the North American College of Health,
Are now acknowledged to be the best medicine in the world for the cure of

EVERY VARIETY OF DISEASE.
Because they thoroughly cleanse the stomach and bowels of those bilious humors which not only paralyze and weaken the digestive organs, but are the cause of headache, nausea and sickness, palpitation of the heart, rheumatic pains in various parts of the body, many other unpleasant complaints.

THE INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.
Are also a certain cure for intermittent, remittent, nervous, inflammatory and putrid fevers; because they cleanse the body of those morbid humors which when confined to the circulation, are the cause of all kinds of

FEVERS.
So, also, when morbid humors are deposited upon the membrane, and muscle, causing those pains, inflammations and swellings, called

RHEUMATISM, GOUT, &c.
The Indian Vegetable Pills may be relied on as always certain to give relief, and if persevered with, will most assuredly, and without fail, make a perfect cure of the above painful maladies. From three to six of said Indian Vegetable Pills taken every night on going to bed, will in a short time so completely rid the body of every thing that is opposed to health, that Rheumatism, Gout, and pain of every description, will be literally

DRIVEN FROM THE BODY.
From the same reason, when, from sudden changes of atmosphere, or any other cause, the perspiration is checked, and those humors which should pass off by the skin, are thrown inwardly, causing

HEADACHE, GIDDINESS, Nausea and sickness, pain in the bones, watery and inflamed eyes, sore throat, hoarseness, coughs, consumption, rheumatic pains in various parts of the body, and many other symptoms of

CATCHING COLD.
THE INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS will invariably give immediate relief. From three to six of said Pills taken every night on going to bed, will in a short time, not only remove all the above unpleasant symptoms, but the body will be restored to even sounder health than before. The same may be said of

ASTHMA, OR DIFFICULTY IN BREATH-ING.
The Indian Vegetable Pills will loosen and carry off by the stomach and bowels those tough, phlegmy humors which stop up the air cells of the lungs, and are the cause not only of the above distressing complaint, but when neglected, often terminates in a still more dreadful malady called

CONSUMPTION.
It should also be remembered that the Indian Vegetable Pills are a certain cure for

PAIN IN THE SIDE.
Oppression, nausea, and sickness, loss of appetite,
costiveness, a yellow tinge of the skin and eyes,
and every other symptom of a torpid or diseased state of the liver; because they purge from the body those impurities which if deposited upon this important organ, are the cause of every variety of

The public will please observe that the genuine medicine has the following wording on the sides of the boxes:

WRIGHT'S INDIAN VEGETABLE PILLS.
(INDIAN PURGATIVE.)
Of the North American College of Health.

And also round the border of the label, will be found in small type, "Entered according to the Act of Congress in the year 1840, by WILLIAM
WRIGHT, in the Clerk's Office, of the District Court, of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania."

The public will also remember, that all who sell the genuine Indian Vegetable Pills are provided with a certificate of Agency, signed by WILLIAM WRIGHT, VICE PRESIDENT,
of the NORTH AMERICAN COLLEGE OF HEALTH,
and that pedlars, are never in any case allowed to sell the genuine Medicine. All travelling agents will be provided with a certificate of agency as above described, and those who cannot show one will be known as base impostors.

If the public are cautioned against buying Pills of one A. L. Norcross, purporting to be the genuine Indian Vegetable Pills of the North American College of Health, but which are a base counterfeit.
Also, beware of one J. B. Rochefort, who is also engaged in the same business.

REMEMBER
That the only Agent for the genuine Pills in this City is, DAVID BUGBEE, Bookseller, No. 2, Kenduskeag Bridge, which is the only place where the genuine can be had in Bangor.

BALDNESS.

A BEAUTIFUL HEAD OF HAIR
Is the grand ornament belonging to the human frame. How strangely the loss of it changes the countenance, and prematurely brings on the appearance of old age, which causes many to recoil at being uncovered, and sometimes even shun society to avoid the jeers and sneers of their acquaintance;
the remainder of their lives is consequently spent in retirement. In short, even the loss of hair, properly fills the generous thinking youth with that heavy sinking gloom which does the loss of his hair.

To avert all these unpleasant circumstances, OL-DRIDGE'S BALM OF COLUMBIA stops the hair from falling off on the first application, and a few bottles restores it again. It likewise produces eyebrows and whiskers; prevents the hair from turning gray, makes it curl beautifully, and treats it from scurf. Numerous certificates of the first celebrity in support of the virtues of Oldridge's Balm are shown by the proprietors.

Read the following:
ROBERT WHARTON, Esq. late Mayor of Philadelphia, has certified, as may be seen below,
to the high character of the following gentleman:
The undersigned do hereby certify that we have used the Balm of Columbia discovered by J. Oldridge and have found it highly serviceable not only as a preventive against the falling out of hair, but also a certain restorative.

It will certainly raise its virtues in the estimation of the public, when it is known that three of the above signers are more than 50 years of age, and the others not less than 30.

[From the Mayor]
COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA,
City of Philadelphia.
I, ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor of said City of Philadelphia, do hereby certify that I am well acquainted with Messrs. J. P. Inglis, John S. Furey, and Hugh McCurdy, whose names are signed to the above certificate, that they are gentlemen of character and respectability, and as such full credit should be given to the said certificate.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the city to be affixed this sixth [L. S.] day of December, &c.
ROBERT WHARTON, Mayor.

DARING FRAUD.
The Balm of Columbia has been imitated by a notorious counterfeiter. Let it never be purchased or used unless it have the signature of COM-STOCK & CO. on a splendid wrapper. This is the only external test that will secure the public from deception.

CONSUMPTION AND LIVER COM- PLAINT.

DR. TAYLOR'S BALSAM OF LIVERWORT
Has been used successfully for eight years in the Cure of these Diseases. [Remember!] the original and genuine is made only at 375 Bowery,
New York. ALL others are spurious and unauthorized.

CONSUMPTION & LIVER COMPLAINT.
As a general remedy for these diseases, I am fully satisfied from long experience, there is no medicine equal to Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liver-wort. Being purely vegetable, it can be used with the most safety by all persons in every condition.
It cleanses the lungs by expectoration, relieves difficult breathing, and heals the chest. There can be no question, but this medicine is a certain cure for chronic coughs and colds. I have used it for four years in my practice, and always with success.

SPITTING OF BLOOD. This disease consists of a discharge of blood, often frothy from the mouth, brought up with walking and coughing, and is usually accompanied with difficulty of breathing, and some pain in the chest. Sometimes it is preceded by an oppression at the chest, a dry tickling cough and slight shooting pains. This disease is always more or less dangerous. The great danger is that these symptoms may terminate in consumption, and immediate remedies can alone save this end. But Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liver-wort is a sure remedy, and to show its unparallel-led success, certificates of cures from 421 citizens, and many physicians, will be published in a few days.

NERVOUS DISEASES AND WEAK-NESS. Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort made at 375 Bowery, is assuredly an excellent remedy for these diseases. My wife has been more or less ill for ten years. She was extremely nervous and at times so weak that she could not attend to her domestic duties. By the use of this medicine, her strength is wholly restored, and she is as healthy as I can wish her to be. My address is at Dr.
Taylor's office.

CURE OF CONSUMPTION. Mrs. Martin, a worthy member of my congregation, was taken ill some time since with a cold, pain in the breast and some difficulty of breathing, and in a few days thereafter she had a violent cough and violent pain in the side, which no medicine would relieve. She continued in this way for 2-3 long time, under the medical care of Dr. Rea, but finally became consumptive, and was evidently near the end of her earthly sufferings, when her brother persuaded her to try Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort. When she commenced using this medicine it did not seem to agree with her for a few days, but by lessening the dose she found it answered admirably. It relieved her cough and her difficulty of breathing, restored her strength, and we had the pleasure of witnessing her rapid recovery to health.

Dr. SEARS' Universal Sanguinarian, OR BLOOD-ROOT PILLS.

THESE truly Vegetable Pills are entirely useful in all cases where Physis requires operation more effectually upon the LIVER and BILIARY DUCTS than any ever before applied to the public. They consequently set the liver, thus removing constiveness, curing Dyspepsia, Liver complaint, Indigestion, Dropsy, and all other diseases, which depend on an impure state of the BLOOD. In point of Economy, a box of these Pills is without a rival as the price.
They are warranted to be composed of the best materials. For Certificates of Cures and other particulars, see bill of directions, which accompanies each box.

All persons who sell the genuine article will furnished with a Certificate of Agency signed by the Proprietor, in his own hand writing.
All orders promptly attended to by BLASDEL & THURSTON, East Thomaston.
